Insurance for the Petroleum Industry

For more than 80 years, we at Fairmont Specialty have been the leading insurer of energy distribution businesses. We have the experience to properly protect the high hazard business of gasoline distribution, and the knowledge to tailor insurance protection for you - the more modern and increasingly diverse petroleum marketer operation of today.

Fair and competitive pricing, knowledgeable underwriting, timely and accurate policy issuance and expert claims handling are the hallmarks of Fairmont Specialty service. Our nationwide field staff of experienced loss control specialists offer added value to the coverages which we provide. For these and many other reasons, a growing number of today's petroleum marketers are turning to us for their insurance protection.
